

14-HR SEX OFFENDER SUPERVISION AND MANAGEMENT COURSE FOR PROBATION, PAROLE AND CORRECTIONS

This Course

This 14-Hr. course is the first in a two part series and is a must for Probation Officers, Parole Agents, and Corrections Staff who supervise and manage high risk sex offenders. It is especially effective for those supervising a specialized caseload.

About Us

We have been training law enforcement for over a decade across the US and internationally. After teaching thousands of officers how to excel in this challenging and difficult assignment, we decided to bring our master course online to make accessible to officers everywhere.

Who Should Take It

- ✓ Probation Officers
- ✓ Parole Officers
- ✓ Non-Sworn Staff
- ✓ Corrections
- ✓ New Officers
- ✓ Prosecutors

Course Features

- Introduction to the most highly specialized assignment in Law Enforcement
- The history of specialized supervision caseloads
- History of HRSO registration and significant legislation driving cases
- Interview questions for the initial meeting with a new offender on your caseload
- Strategies when working with other agencies
- Nationally recognized Evidence-Based supervision techniques
- Standards for compliance operations, residence verification, and registration
- Non state specific sex offender registration including SORNA
- Overview of "The Containment Model" of offender supervision
- Static and Dynamic Offender Risk and Offender Risk Assessment
- Use of the Polygraph to assist in determining offender risk
- Collaboration with local, state, and federal law enforcement agencies
- Officer safety techniques for both field and office
- General search techniques for high risk offenders
- Digital Investigation of computers, mobile devices, and other media
- CSAM investigations, prosecutions, and supervision
- Officer wellness and secondary trauma when working with offenders and CSAM
- Officer Safety when working with HRSOs